

The Rickmansworth Festival Celebrating our Canals and Environment 16th and 17th May 2009

Rickmansworth Waterways Trust

Batchworth Lock Canal Centre
99 Church Street,
Rickmansworth
Hertfordshire WD3 1JD
T: 01923 778 382
www.rwt.org.uk

A celebration of the waterways and the environment takes place in the Rickmansworth Aquadrome and along the Grand Union Canal between Batchworth and Stockers Locks

Admission free – but please donate at least £1 per person towards the cost of the Festival and towards the work of the Trust

Open from 10:30 until 22:30 Saturday and until 17:30 Sunday

Canal Festival with Boat Competitions, Canal Boat Tug-of-War

Metropolitan Line Heritage Train running between Harrow, Rickmansworth and Amersham on Sunday with vintage bus service from Rickmansworth station to Batchworth lock

Flypast by the Battle of Britain Memorial Flight Spitfire Saturday only (subject to weather)

Interactive exhibition on the Education Work of the Rickmansworth Waterway's Trust

Appreciating Animals the farm that's coming to the Aquadrome

A full program of entertainment on three stages

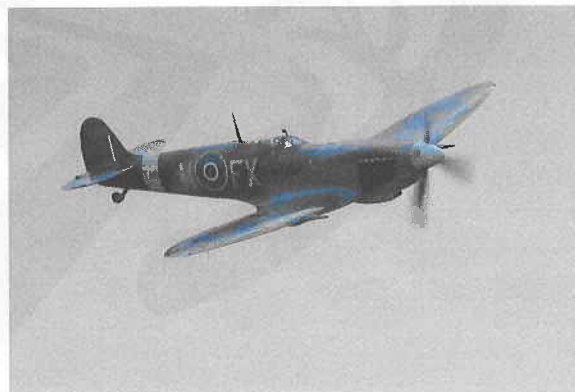

Dunkirk little ship Quisisana

Trade Stalls, Beer Tent and Catering

Sovereign the Shire horse

The Three Rivers District Council Environmental Fair

Medieval living history display

The Festival is supported by Three Rivers District Council, British Waterways, Hertfordshire Police and Three Valleys Water, and the Inland Waterways Association.

The Rickmansworth Waterways Trust brings together people who are passionate about canals, the local community, its history and environment. Our aim is to excite and inform through the discovery of canals and boats at Batchworth Lock on the Grand Union Canal and to expose schools and the public beyond Batchworth to the environment, history and heritage of the canal.

Registered in England No 2674596 Registered Charity No. 1024322
Rickmansworth Waterways Trust Ltd. A Company Limited by Guarantee.